

CSICON

22nd - 25th November, 2018

PHFI participated in the 70th Annual Conference of the Cardiological Society of India held at MMRDA Exhibition Ground, Mumbai from 22nd -25th November, 2018.

CSICON scientific sessions was attended by over 2500 delegates from across the country. The scientific sessions is an annual event that enhance cardiologist and physician's knowledge and skills. The theme of this conference was "Translating recent advances to regional needs" which strives to translate advances in scientific knowledge into meaningful steps that can transform patient care.

Please find below few glimpses:

Various National experts and Regional faculty visited PHFI stall

Delegates at PHFI Stall

18th Surgeon General of the United States Regina Marcia Benjamin along with Prof. Prabhakaran at PHFI stall